

Burlington County Special Services School District Points of Pride 2018-2019

- Embraced artificial intelligence and robotics with Milo the Robot to assist students with autism and behavioral disabilities
- Main Campus: Communication boards placed across campuses for BCS West. 90% of students now communicate AT/AAC – 300+ students mapped
- Former Apartheid survivor and bodyguard to Nelson Mandela, Chris Lubbe visits district during Week of Respect
- Guidance Counselor brought on board to address student skill development, skills transcript for high school students and college and career ready preparation
- Creation of a Tiered Transition Skill Development Program
- ESU - ASL Online and Canvas student management system launched
- BCBA and SAC brought on board to support student growth and development
- Administrative changes promote innovation, positive behavioral supports and student engagement across all exceptionalities
- Ongoing expansion of the successful Transition Campus model with a key focus on social and emotional skill and workforce development
- Transition Campus-CBI/SLE expanded to additional sites
- Use of social media to keep community connected while demonstrating innovation and student progress grows exponentially after the training of administrators and then key staff
- PBIS behavioral support system integrates social and emotional learning
- Number of respites increased on campus to support parents throughout the school year
- Increased exponentially the School to Work and CBI instruction workforce skill development
- Enhanced partnership with RCBC to now offer eligible students' opportunities to take college courses on campus
- Created a three-tiered skill development program in Transition Program that positioned students to be eligible for pre-college experience
- Administrators engaged in training for emergency response ALICE Training
- Handle with Care Training for Lumberton, BCAS and West staff
- Lumberton Campus - Strategic Plan created and operationalized to support subject specific focus in different buildings and adoption of new culture and climate to support student growth and wellbeing
- Alt School Campus continues to see decrease in behavior and high number of graduates
- BCAS are now partners with Character.Org to review other applications
- BCAS increased the number of successful students in PM program
- BCAS launched the Young Adult Classroom Library to promote independent reading
- BCAS completed the three-year Rutgers and NJDOE School Culture Transformation Project
- Successfully promoted Social and Emotional and Mindfulness Training- Certified staff members C.A.P.P.
- Multiple administrators working on completing their Doctoral Degrees

Discover Your Potential

August 2019

Dr. Christopher Nagy
Superintendent of Schools
cnagy@burlcoschools.org

Dr. Lisa J. English
Assistant Superintendent
Curriculum and Instruction lenglish@burlcoschools.org

Dr. Ashanti Holley
Assistant Superintendent
Equity and Diversity
aholley@burlcoschools.org

Ms. Theresa L. Margiotta
Business Administrator/Board Secretary tmargiotta@burlcoschools.org

(609) 261-5600